

Helping the Melbourne Centre with Monthly Standing Donations (MSD)

The Melbourne Buddhist Centre can generate an income through Monthly Standing Donations (MSD's). Friends of the MBC can arrange for a monthly direct debit from their bank account. The amount each individual can commit to will vary of course, depending on their circumstances.

As a way of recognising people's generosity, anyone who commits to donating $60 or more per month can choose to have their fees waived for drop-in meditation class (currently Thursday evening, Saturday morning and Monday lunch time) as well as study group fees where applicable.

MSD's are an ideal opportunity to practise generosity in a very practical way and helps the MBC to gain a greater regularity in its income.

If you would like to discuss this further, please speak to one of the Order Members at the Centre. You can complete and leave this form at the Centre. You will need to consult with your bank to set up the transfer.
Thank you for your time and interest.
